

Club Accreditation Programme Update – December 2019

First Aid qualified personnel

As a reminder, please see below the requirements on clubs in relation to First Aid qualified personnel for our club accreditation programme.

Clubs must ensure each age group team has at least ONE First Aid qualified person.

Only FAW First Aid Awards will be accepted from January 2020 for individuals whose current 1st Aid qualification expires 31 December 2019 or are undertaking the qualification for the first time. Individuals whose qualifications expire in 2020, 2021 or 2022 will need to complete an FAW First Aid Award upon expiry of their current qualification.

Those undertaking the following medical roles – doctor, nurse or paramedic as a professional occupation or who hold a valid a 3-day (or more) First Aid at Work qualification will be determined as an appropriately qualified first aid provider without completing an FAW 1st Aid qualification.

Those who hold the exempted occupations or qualification will need to upload proof of employment or evidence of certification on to the relevant individuals COMET account. If you require support or guidance on uploading information on to COMET, please contact Lauren Haywood – lauren@fawtrust.cymru
